FOREWORD

Insight has been defined as a deep look into the basic facts of an event and is a useful and valuable tool for bringing out what is known as the "true picture." We of the MONTALA staff believe that this concept of insight is most important in compiling a yearbook. With this in mind, we present MONTALA '66, A Review in Depth.

DEDICATION

Of all the many duties that today's high school teacher must assume, one of the most important, and often most difficult is helping students in the quest for what is right and guiding them in the direction that will make them mature young people. This requires a knowledge of human nature, a wealth of personal experience, and a sound philosophy on life.

"Cornpatch" philosophy is a good example, and students at M.H.S. know that Montevallo's math teacher uses this quite often in helping to solve problems—though the problems may not always be those of algebra or geometry.

Besides being a top-notch math teacher, she continually helps discouraged students out of the hole with her seemingly inexhaustible patience and understanding, and has made numerous contributions to both the school and its faculty.

For all of this and more, we of the MONTALA staff wish to express our sincere appreciation to Miss Katherine Farrington, and are proud to dedicate to her MONTALA '66.

New Honor Society members get congratulated.

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the school's outstanding service organizations is the Student Council. Composed of two elected delegates from each homeroom—grades nine through twelve—the group annually takes on such projects as sponsoring the Community Chest Drive and correlating Homecoming activities. Selection of officers takes place each spring as the student body elects the governing officials for the coming year. Sponsor for the group is Mrs. Sara Cairns.

Council members Dennis, Ward, L. Lovelady, Kimbrell, S. Lovelady, and Barclay polish trophies for front hall.

Council bulletin board gets new look from members Popwell, Scott, McGlown, and Lewis.

Improving school grounds and buildings calls for window washing detail composed of members Bennett, Barclay, Allen, Anthony and Lawley.

Rooms get new "name tags." Shown above are Art Bolton, Lynn Rotenberry, Thomas Cannon, Phil Hubbard and Bob Scott.

Council members are in charge of school flag. Shown below are representatives Pickett, Byrd, Brown, Crowe, Draper, and Nix.

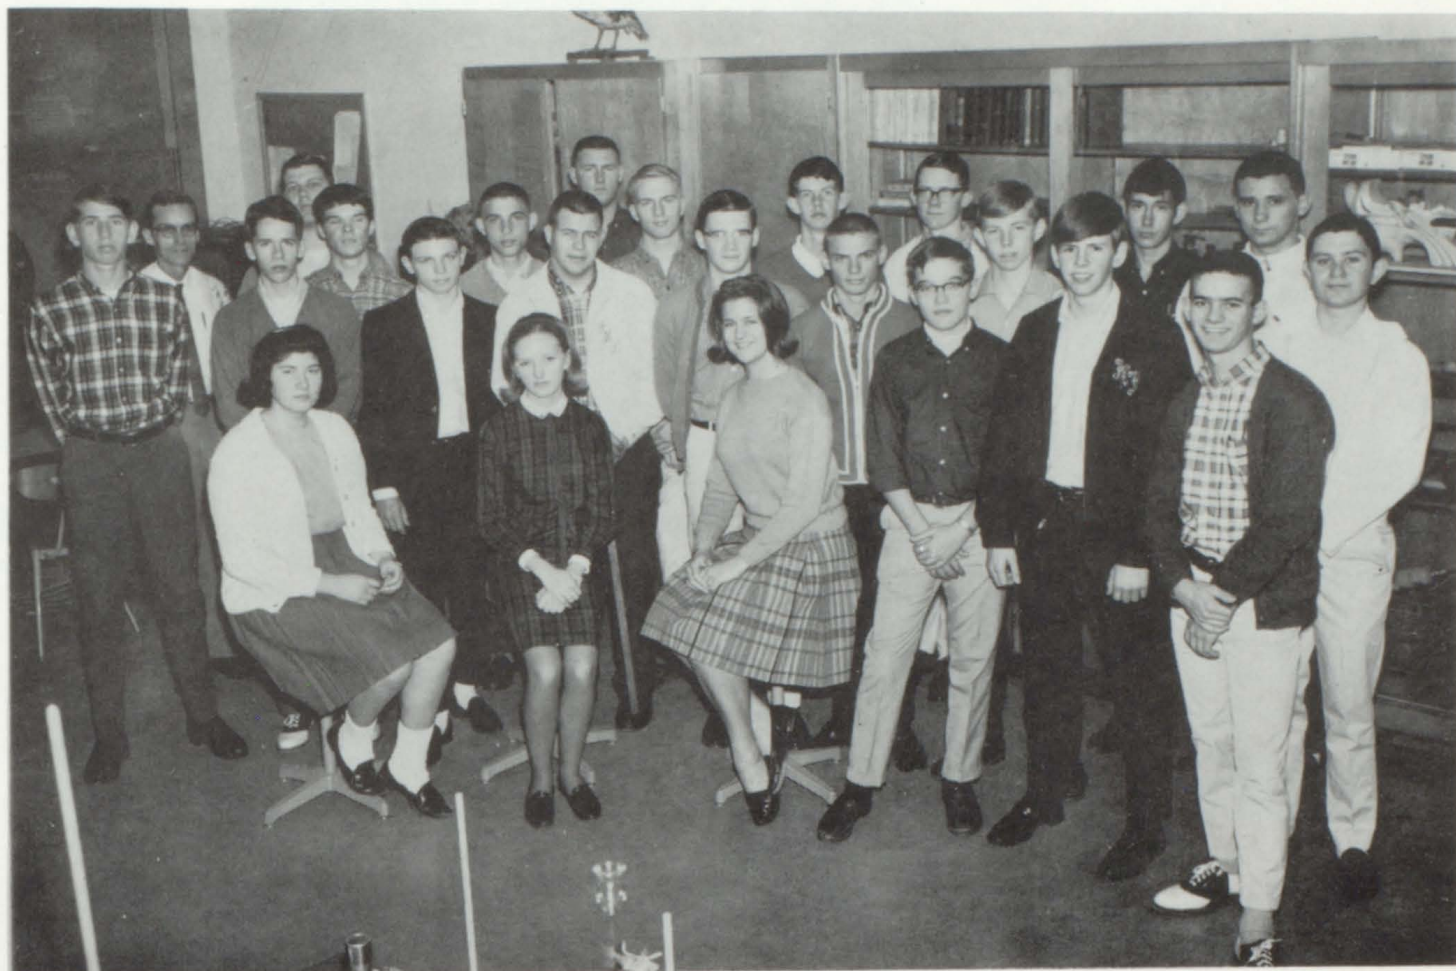

Members gather to get ideas from file of yearbooks.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is composed of members from the eleventh and twelfth grades who have achieved and maintained a B+ average in their high school years and have shown high standards of leadership, character, and service. Acting as a service group within the school, the group edits the school yearbook and provides baby sitters for children of parents wishing to attend PTA meetings. Officers of this group are Phil Hubbard, President; Sue Goggins, Vice-President; Peggi Maher, Secretary; and Cheryl Blackmon, Treasurer. Other members are Janice Smitherman, Gail Polk, Linda Harrison, Donna Allen, Susan Lovelady, Martha Scott, Grace McEntee, and Chris Youtz.

Junior Academy of Science membership is open to students in grades nine through twelve and is designed to offer opportunities that will encourage a career in science. Sponsor of the group is Mr. Hershel Day.

SPOTLIGHT . . .

♦ ♦ ♦ "one of Nation's best!"

Spotlight began an uphill climb with a Second Class national rank in 1957, moving to First Class the second semester of 1958-59.

It reached All-American rating second semester of 1960-61, and it has remained in that position for ten consecutive semesters.

Mr. J. K. Hvistendahl, associate professor of journalism at South Dakota State University, referred to the Spotlight as "one of the best duplicated newspapers in the United States." He used Spotlight pages as examples of good journalism in his book, "Producing the Duplicated Newspaper."

BUSINESS

Members of the Business Club are seniors enrolled in typing and/or shorthand.

President Sue Goggins and Secretary Gail Polk get a meeting underway.

The Business Club has as its purpose enrichment of the business courses. Programs for the year included guest speakers on "The importance of a good voice in the office," "Proper Office Attire," and "Grooming for the Office." One program on voice included proper use of the telephone. The club sponsors the school's March of Dimes. This year's donations amounted to $307.68.

Rhonda Davis, Linda Harrison, and Gay Nell Moreland (standing) offer advice to Janice Smitherman, Vice-President and Program Chairman.

CLUB

Jayne Lucas and Donna Allen, March of Dimes Chairmen, get help from Geraldine Hare as they count March of Dimes collections. Donna Served as County Teen MOD chairman.

Miss Susie DeMent, sponsor, explains to Jeana Dunaway that many of Montevallo's graduates "Go Straight to the Job."

MONTEVALLO HIGH SCHOOL BAND

One of the top twelve high school bands in Alabama, the MHS Band, under the direction of Mr. Everett Lawler, breezed through District Tryouts and then went on to get a Superior rating at the State Contest. On the marching field and in numerous concerts throughout the year, the band proved to both students and adults that it well deserved the high rating, and its new uniforms which were obtained through the efforts of the local Band Boosters Association.

HOMECOMING '65

Coach Fisher and guest Bobby Baker, M.H.S. graduate, lead off Homecoming festivities with Thursday night pep rally speeches.

Suzy Osterling, 1964 Homecoming Queen, crowns '65 Queen, Jayne Lucas.

Queen Jayne's court included Dian Lawler, Junior Attendant; Peggi Maher, Linda Harrison, and Dolores Smith.

Her Majesty, Queen Jayne, is applauded by her subjects as she takes her traditional walk around the dance floor.

VALENTINE DANCE

MISS VALENTINE 1966, Susan Lovelady, was chosen to reign as Montevallo's third Queen of Hearts. Susan was selected from a field of fourteen girls by four out-of-town judges. Her court included Senior Vicki Winslett, Junior Joan Anthony, and Sophomores Betty Jane Barclay and Carolyn Frost.

1965 Queen, Lynn Rotenberry, crowns Queen Susan.

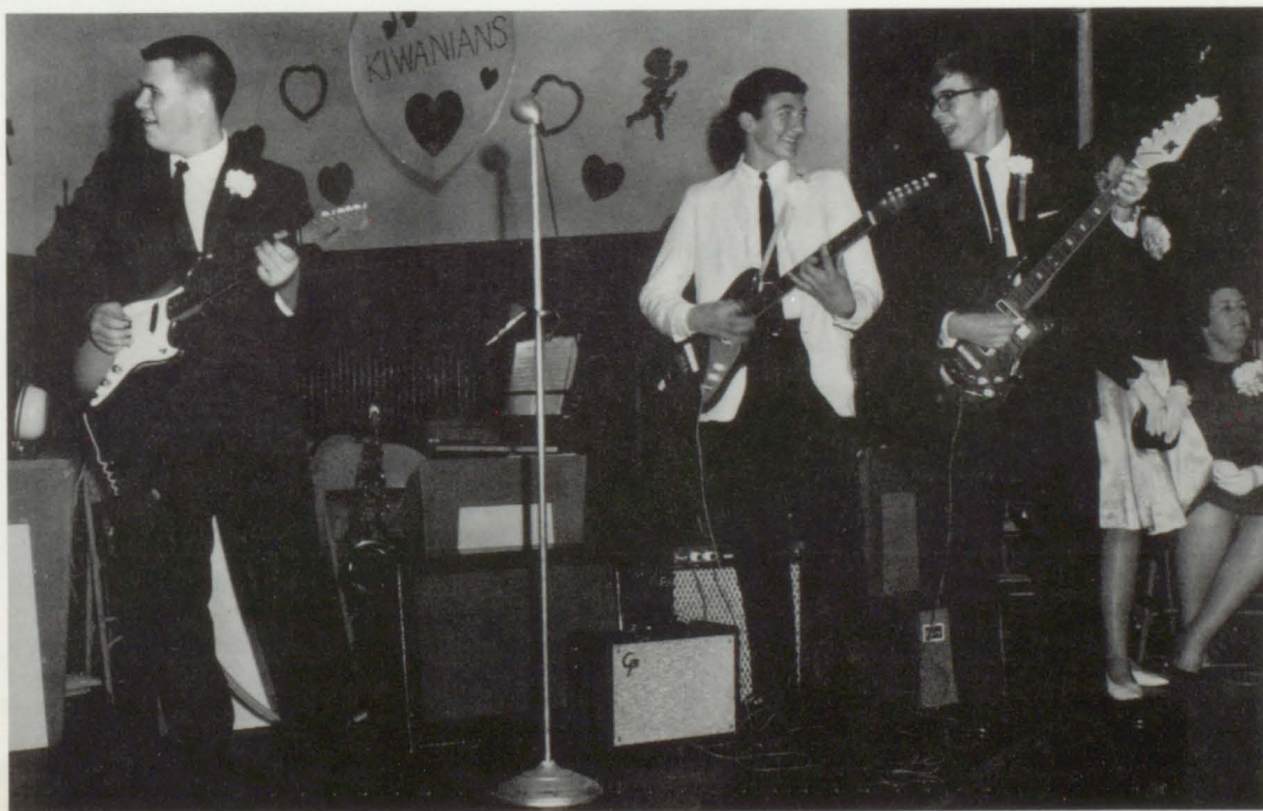

Queen Susan is presented the traditional dozen roses by Band Director Mr. Everett Lawler.

It seemed to be a lucky night for the Loveladys as Steve Huffstutler called out the winning door prize number and Mr. Don Lovelady came forward to receive his prize from Mrs. Arthur Bolton.

MUSIC TO PLEASE EVERYONE made the dance rather unique—"swing" by the Kiwanians, "rock" by the Nobels.

Junior-Senior Prom

The 1966 Prom theme of Mardi Gras was carried out by the Juniors under the direction of class sponsors, Mrs. Sara Cairns and Mr. Herschel Day. Hundreds of yards of crepe paper, several feet of lumber, cardboard boxes, a few gallons of paint, and many, many hours of sweat and toil were blended to produce a gala atmosphere within the MHS auditorium.

An "Entertainment Hour," during which Junior Class President Jimmy Lawley presented gifts with poems to Seniors, and Senior Class Lawyer Philip Hubbard expounded the Last Will and Testament, preceded the dance. A "sidewalk cafe" arrangement of tables and chairs was used to advantage.

Several of the popular arrangements by Herb Alpert were included in the broad repertoire of Mr. Everett Lawler's dance band.

Cookies, candy, and punch were served throughout the function by Mrs. Cairns.

"The Imaginary Invalid"

Months of preparation and practice, as shown above and below, paid off for the speech class when they received hearty applause for their performance.

The imaginary invalid, Argan (Claude Eddings), is comforted by his money-seeking wife, Beline (Candi McGaughy).

Moliere's play, "The Imaginary Invalid," was presented by the speech class in the spring. Gaining much well deserved applause were Claude Eddings, Nancy Edwards, Candi McGaughy, Cheryl Blackmon, David Nichols, Thomas Cannon, Lynn Rotenberry, Cheryl Moss, Ellen Freil, Dolores Smith, Linda Harrison, Susan Holsomback, Brenda Lovelady, Grace McEntee, and Mrs. Sara Cairns, director.

"No, I won't let you marry him," says Argan to his weeping daughter, Angelique (Cheryl Blackmon).

Toinette (Nancy Edwards), the vivacious maid, is chased by Argan.

"SPECIAL" EVENTS

Seniors Tommy Baker, Lemoyne Daviston, and Donna Allen help trim the tree at the Christmas Party.

Student Council nominees display ingenious campaign posters.

Business Club members Pardue, Harrison, Goggins, and Polk sell candy for March of Dimes drive.

FHA Flappers perform at Parent Night.

"SPECIAL" AWARDS

The boys selected to attend the 1965 Boys State program at Auburn University are Alan Barclay, Phil Hubbard, Jimmy Birdsong, Mike Pickett, Marlon Payne, David Smitherman, Tommy Baker, and Norman Eiland.

Cheryl Blackmon, Girls State delegate, with alternate Dolores Smith.

County typing champion Martha Scott displays the form that helped her attain accuracy and a speed of over 90 words per minute.

Lemoyne Daviston, Shelby County's entrant in the Junior Miss Pageant, won an Alverson-Draughon scholarship in the contest.

Betty Crocker Homemaking Award winner, Peggi Maher.

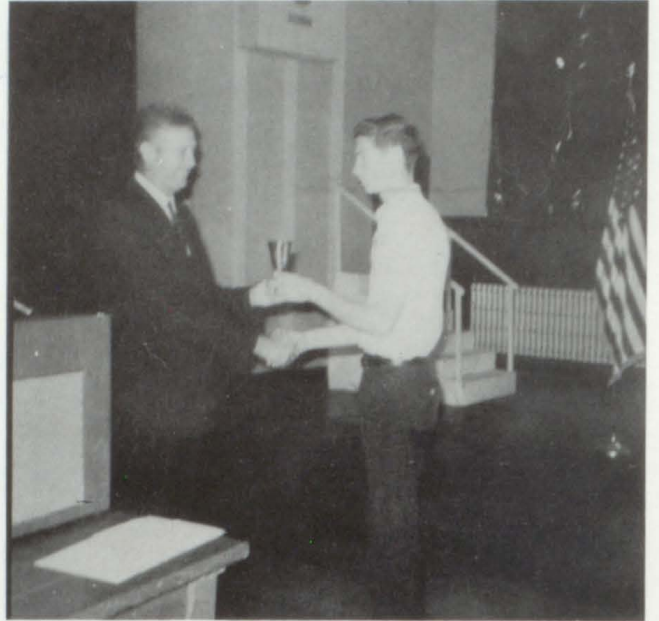

AWARDS

The 1966 Awards Day program at MHS was the largest of its kind since it was originated eight years ago by Principal Mr. Guy Milford. Miss Susie DeMent, coordinator of the program, recognized over 160 different students and 3 adults with 204 citations, which were presented to each winner by Shelby County Superintendent of Education, Mr. Elvin Hill. On this page and the next are shown some of the highlights of the program.

Cheryl Blackmon is awarded the coveted Tri-Hi-Y silver bowl.

Philip Hubbard and Martha Scott receive the American Legion Award. Runners-up for this award were Cheryl Blackmon and Marlon Payne.

DAY '66

Susan Lovelady accepts her Outstanding Senior Bandsman award and trophy.

Along with an academic letter, the County Typing Championship, All County Band, and many others Martha Scott was the recipient of the valuable Reader's Digest Award.

For his comprehensive Saturday morning newscasts, President Tommy Baker was awarded by the Student Council.

Co-Editors Vicki Winslett and Richard Tingle accept Spotlight honors.

Jayne Lucas receives the Head Cheerleader Award presented to her by the cheerleaders and Mrs. Kelly.

Eighth-grader Sonya Edwards was named Outstanding Girl Phys. Ed. Student by the P. E. Department.

New members sign register and light candles.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY INITIATION

A part of each spring is the annual tapping ceremony of new Honor Society members. This year, fourteen new members, including one senior, were called up for the traditional candle lighting ceremony.

Member Cheryl Blackmon discusses one of the Society's four virtues while other members look on.

Closing feature of the program is the singing of the Alma Mater.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

A big event in the life of a senior is the selection of the class "Who's Who." Under the guidance of September elected officers, "Who's Who" choices are made each spring. Officers in charge of this year's election were Marlon Payne, President; Peggi Maher and Lemoyne Daviston, Co-Vice Presidents; Martha Scott, Secretary; and Cheryl Blackmon and Jerry Rhodes, Co-Treasurers.

Three Bulldogs Make "All-County"

Pictured above are the 1965 Montevallo Bulldogs. They are (1st row, left to right) Robbie Owens, Steve Spears, Johnny Taylor, Jimmy Brown, Jimmy Birdsong, Ed Simpson, Doug Jones, Paul Knowles, Alan Barclay, Mike Pickett, Bob Honeycutt; (second row) Donnie Payne, Steve Arledge, Thomas Nix, Carey Pickett, Danny Bearden, Jerry Morgan, Billy Joe Hall, Tommy Baker, David Smitherman, Jimmy Lawley, Donn Phillips, David Bennett; (third row) Randy Green, Ray Bearden, Tommy Arledge, Mitchell Spears, Alan Nannini, Bobby Scott, David Lucas, Bruce Reynolds, Roy Goggins, Danny Wyatt, Mike Sims, Tommy Harris, Donald Kimbrell. Not pictured are Norman Eiland and Marlon Payne.

Montevallo won its first football game of the 65-66 season by downing Vincent 12-0. Doug Jones scored once on a 76-yard run and passed to David Smitherman for the other tally.

Despite the fact that Montevallo held Holtville to only 2 first downs and gained 64 more yards than the visiting team, the Bulldogs had to settle for a 14-14 tie. Montevallo's two touchdowns were scored by Doug Jones and Ed Simpson. Tommy Baker kicked both PAT's.

Senior Alan Barclay

Shown below are Alan Barclay, David Smitherman, and Marlon Payne who were named to the All-County football team. Smitherman was also an All-Conference pick.

Senior David Smitherman

Senior Mike Pickett

Senior Tommy Baker

Halfback Howard Brogden led the Thompson High Warriors to a 12-6 victory over Montevallo at Siluria. The Bulldog's lone tally came in the second quarter when Danny Bearden intercepted a Warrior pass and ran it back 40 yards for th score.

Clanton quarterback Jack Moore proved too much for the Montevallo defense as he ran for two touchdowns and passed for two more to shut out the Bulldogs 33-0.

Montevallo won their first game in the new stadium when the Bulldogs shut out Jemison 18-0. Alan Barclay scored the first touchdown nine plays after the Bulldog defense blocked a Panther punt. Simpson threw a 42-yard pass to Barclay for the second Bulldog tally with 8 seconds left in the first half. The last Montevallo touchdown came on a pass from Simpson to Jones in the fourth quarter.

Senior Jerry Morgan

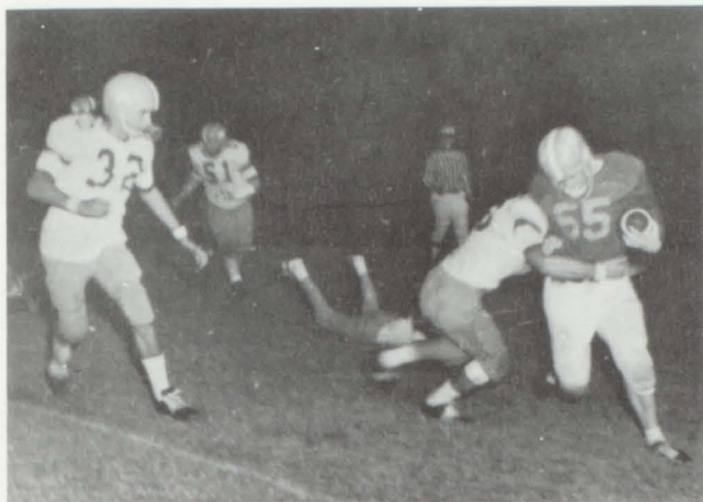

Senior Jimmy Birdsong

Senior Johnny Taylor

Montevallo beat Verbena 21-0 for their third shut-out victory of the season. The Bulldog defense held the Red Devils to minus yardage on the ground. Barclay scored a touchdown on a pass from Simpson and later, with the aid of Jerry Morgan, caught a Verbena player in the end zone for a safety. Mike Pickett also scored for MHS.

Shelby County ran their winning streak to 41 consecutive games as they beat the Bulldogs 27-7. Statistics told the tale as the Wildcats had 391 total yards gained to Montevallo's 183. The Bulldogs' only score came on a pass from Simpson to Smitherman.

Danny Loftin and Dee Franks teamed up to spoil Montevallo's Homecoming as Calera edged the Bulldogs 25-20. Simpson, Barclay, and Jones each scored once and Simpson kicked two PAT's to give Montevallo a 20-19 lead until the fourth quarter when the Eagles scored on a pass for the win.

B. B. Comer scored 20 points in the second half as the Tigers rolled over Montevallo 20-0. Quarterback Tommy Riggins led Comer's attack as he scored one touchdown and passed for two more.

Jones scored Montevallo's last touchdown of the 1965 season in a losing effort as the Cordova Blue Devils beat the Bulldogs 26-7. Simpson kicked the PAT for Montevallo.

Height Hurts BULLDOGS But Hustle Helps

Shown above are the ten seniors that composed the shortest basketball team Coach Cratie Corbett has ever coached at MHS. They are (bottom, left to right) David Smitherman, Jerry Hyde, Norman Eiland, Terry Herron, Chris Youtz, (top, left to right) Manager Robert Thompson, Johnny Boyd, Tommy Baker, Thomas Lawley, Harold Norris, Don Horton, and Coach Corbett. The Bulldogs posted a 10-12 record and won third place in the Mid-State Conference Tournament.

Johnny Boyd — forward. "Johnny has been one of MHS's most consistent men. Leading scorer this year, he was All-County in his junior year."

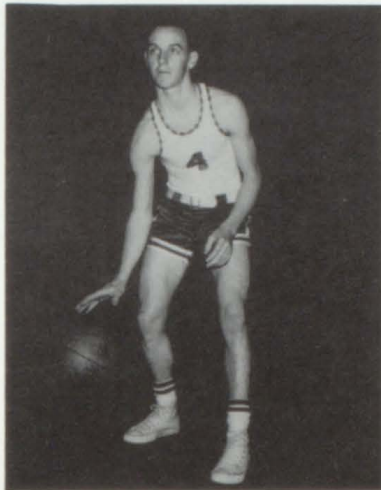

Norman Eiland — guard. "Small physically, Norman puts a big heart in the game. He's an accurate shot and a good ball handler."

Terry Herron — guard. "A good ball handler and feeder, Terry was selected all conference his senior year."

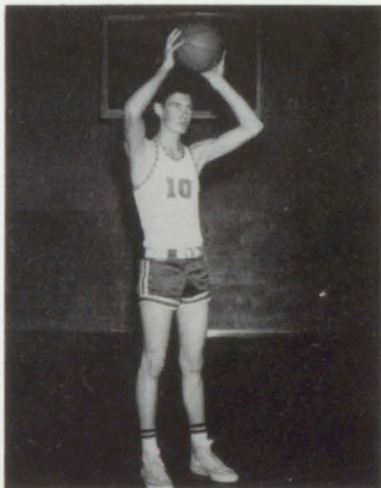

Don Horton—guard. "Don is unusually versatile, having played every position. An excellent shooter."

Jerry Hyde—forward. "Jerry is big and strong and is leading rebounder for the Bulldogs."

Thomas Lawley—center. "A first-year man, Thomas was tallest man on the team at 6' 1"."

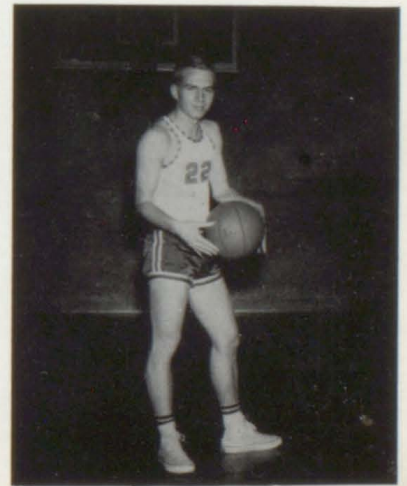

Harold Norris — center. "Harold is short for a center, but is a real hustler and always came through under pressure."

David Smitherman — center and forward. "David is a good pivot man for his size. He was second in both individual scoring and rebounding."

Chris Youtz — forward. "Transferred to MHS from New Mexico, Chris keeps himself in excellent condition. He is a good team man."

The "B" Team had a successful season under the direction of Coach Theron Fisher. They had a 15-5 record and came in second place in the County Tournament. Members of the team are Clay Nordan, Art Bolton, Carey Pickett, Ed Simpson, Blain Harper, Clarence Stone, Joe Meyer, Billy Surface, Robbie Owens, and Larry Popwell.

Pictured at left is MHS's Junior Team composed of boys from the ninth grade. They are (first row, left to right) Gary Richardson, Jimmy Youtz, Billy Allen, Bobby Scott, Mike Sims, (second row) Eddie Lovelady, Gerald Robinson, Frank Tingle, David Bennett, Jimmy Brown, and Coach Charles Martin.

Shown above with Coach Theron Fisher are (first row, left to right) Robbie Owens, Doug Jones, Terry Herron, Thomas Lawley, Steve Spears (second row, left to right) Norman Eiland, Johnny Boyd, Jerry Hyde, Larry Popwell, Paul Knowles, (third row, left to right) David Smitherman, Joe Lovelady, Jimmy Brown, David Bennett, Wayne Nichols, and Steve Arledge, members of the 1966 Bulldog baseball team. This team had an 11-4 overall record and captured both the county and Mid-State Conference titles. Leading the way for the Bulldogs were Norman Eiland, Terry Herron, Jerry Hyde, and David Smitherman, who were selected to play in the all-star tryouts, and Thomas Lawley who had a perfect (5-0) season on the mound.

Norman Eiland, Terry Herron, David Smitherman, and Jerry Hyde represented MHS at the East-West AllStar tryout game at Clanton. Herron and Hyde were picked by big league scouts to participate in a second game against Clanton.
